

How to Waive a Federal Grazing Permit for Cash

Legislation that would facilitate the permanent retirement of a federal grazing permit that has been voluntarily waived has been introduced in various forms into the U.S. Congress since the 1990s. A recent version of such legislation is the Rural Economic Vitalization Act (REVA), first introduced by Congressman Adam Smith (WA-9) in November 2011, and reintroduced in May 2013. Although this legislation states the effects on a grazing permittee and obligations of the U.S. Government associated with retiring a grazing permit and permanently closing the associated grazing allotment(s), the legislation does not explain how a permittee might work with a “Payor” (financial donor) that would compensate the permittee for waiving a grazing permit. The Sierra Club’s Grazing Core Team has produced three sample documents, included in this file (“Agreement for Termination of Grazing Permit,” “Exhibit C,” and “Exhibit D”), that demonstrate the ease with which this transaction can be accomplished.

All required documents for donating a grazing permit back to the U.S. government are described below:

Agreement for Termination of Grazing Permit: the agreement between the Grazing Permittee and the Payor. The document is written from the perspective of the enabling legislation not having been enacted nor even introduced into Congress. If either case were satisfied, it would be a simple matter to appropriately modify this document.

Exhibit A: the Permittee’s federal grazing permit.

Exhibit B: the legislation that would enable the retirement of a federal grazing permit (Exhibit A) and the permanent closure of the associated grazing allotment(s).

Exhibit C (Permit Termination Letter): the Grazing Permittee’s letter to the U.S. Government stating the desire that the Permittee’s federal grazing permit be retired and the associated grazing allotment(s) be permanently closed to livestock grazing.

Exhibit D (Permittee’s Affidavit): a statement that actions and conditions specified by the Payor have been met.

The documents supplied here are for educational and informational purposes only and do not constitute legal advice. A Grazing Permittee who wants to retire his or her federal grazing permit should contact an attorney to obtain advice specific to their situation.
